 CALUMET

FAST FORWARD TO TODAY ...

We remain an industry leader in the complex and scientific area of gelled emollients, petrolatums and white mineral oils. We have more than 20 certifications and credentials – from the FDA, USP to NF – that demand our commitment to quality. In short, we rely on our history, high standards, research and development, and advanced science to create formulations that are customized to your needs and specifications.

Penreco gives you something more: customized, safe products that you can count on.

PENRECO PILLARS OF EXCELLENCE

STANDARDS, CERTIFICATIONS & QUALITY

THRESHOLD OF EXCELLENCE

In our daily commitment to meet the requirements of our customers, we ensure our products meet the highest standards and quality globally. We have more than 20 certifications and credentials – from the FDA, USP to NF – encompassing our international pharmacopoeia registrations (EUP, BP, DAB, JIS).

RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT

AN IMPORTANT FIRST STAGE

We don't outsource our R&D – our experts lead the way. And with a recent multi-million investment in a key U.S. manufacturing plant, our commitment to research and development isn't slowing down.

INNOVATION

IT'S WHAT SETS US APART

Innovation is at the heart of everything we do. By partnering with our customers to develop new products for specific applications, such as our extensive product lines of Versagel, we deliver value to some of the world's leading global brands.
